

Richmond April 9th 1869.

A. C. Sawyer

Dear Sir,

Grand kind good, of March 15th was duly received and we are very glad to see that you had at last succeeded in convincing the friends to the Union, Frank Long etc, to leave her the care of trouble and to let to your other business all else and matters, we all have nothing but our good wishes to give you at present, we all hope that you may be able to send her something better soon, I see in the papers that Congress is about to adjourn, if that Should I have time there will hardly be time to act upon the matter, but I think that Julian will do what he can, please except my sincere thanks for the interest you have taken in me this far, and it is my only wish and I need that I may yet be able to repay you and those who have stood by me in time of need, I should like to have seen Hansville's Affidavit, if anything comes in I shall let you know, we hope that this will find you in good health

Yours

Very respectfully

Yours

Wm. H. Schramm
