

The Union Party - ~~Its Past, Present and Future~~

We promised our readers, in our last issue, to give more specifically, this week, our reasons for favoring a new Convention, as proposed by the Wilmington republicans and ~~some~~ ^{many} others.

It is not necessary that this should be done to form a new party, for the party is already formed, its principles known and recognized. It stands before the people of North Carolina, today, as the staunch supporter of one of the two systems upon which the new state must be organized and built up -
