Esteemed Friend

5th Nov. 1869

Judge Tougee,

Allow me to introduce to thy kind notice Frank Webb, formerly of Philadelphia, now of this city, whom we have encouraged to return to the States; believing he might be of considerable service to his race in its transition state, as he is a gentleman of marked ability, intelligence, education, and good character. He has occupied a good position in society here, where there is none of that prejudice which drove him from his native land. He is the author of "The Garies", to which Louisa Brougham and H. B. Stowe wrote a preface. He is respectably married and has an interesting young family.
I should esteem it a favour, if thou could put him in the way of obtaining a situation in which his talents would be appreciated.

We hope to finish our visit to this Island in about two months, when we hope to return to the States with our kind remembrance to thee and thy wife -

Believe me

Thy Sincere Friend,
Geo. Dixon
