Dear Mrs. Sawyer —

It seems so delightful to have your daughter here with us. I must write you a few words — You must be lonely I know and anxious to know how she seems. She has such wonderful power that I am scarcely help- but she certainly is in worse for the Shemans treatment — We are rather quiet and of course as the doctors ordered — my work separates us some of the time — The landlady does not seem able to look after things much this week — but tomorrow is Cleaning day, and no hope for much! The jelly looks like nectar — I have sampled one glass and it tastes like nectar! — We will have it for our luncheon for the next two weeks — and the boy will be saved for you —

We must go to tea Wednesday & to go to the Opera tonight — Mr. Wednesday kept I give a tea for her — If she can put up with Studio luck I mean to make her as comfortable as I can —

Sincerely yours
Clara Jackett
