My dear Mrs Lougee

July today - staying home from "Adult School" at Overhigh - have I found time to quiet ~~write~~ copy the portions I so desired to keep from the previous "cuttings". I fear you have needed them or at least wished for them many times. ~~I trust~~ They will reach you safely - I send as before &c. Tell Mear, a new address

Have any of the friends with whom you have stayed,
been able to put you
in the way of con-
fering with London Publishers -

Some one here recommends Headly Brothers (15 Bishopsgate St. Without - London &c)

They are Quakers,
publish our paper.

The Friend is a variety of literary works & heads of Fisher & Wrenn's are of no use to you

it might be well to consult the Secretary of the Anti Slavery Society (57 Denison House
Traverse Duxton Esq
Vauxhall Bridge Rd.
SW.)

or Mr Fox Bourne Sec. of
the Aborigines Protection Society (both men of experience in ~~the~~ Race questions & acquainted with literary circles - Publishers &c) - The latter office is at Broadway Chambers

Westminster,
not far from the Abbey, How I wish I could help to get those invaluable books
into circulation in England. In haste
Affly yours,

H. J. Incey.

The sister joins love to you both - &c.
