Dear Anna -

You are nobody knows where - by this time! With your indomitable will nothing - even physical ills - disengage you from free performance in life - Where are you are -

You know of any American lace making or makers? I have changed of lace and embroideries in the evening arts and crafts exhibits
- in March and it is for work now being made - for sale and exhibit - Anne Sister

Send me your notes! I may be able to have you give a talk in here in general
- if - you can to -

I am doing the greatest thing I have yet attempted - A girl of seven sits on an old chest-board a fairy book in her lap - her legs are far away - and behind in the tapestry are the faces of the Character in her mind - The Crowned Son - one of the eleven brothers - the wolf grandfathers a queen &c - White dress Toned brown low - & green blue stockings shoes & ribbons - no blue leg hangings down the slipper touching the floor - a low round thing but rich -
