

My dear Bushey: Is Misson going to do anything about ~~the~~ a new edition of "A Man of Destiny"?

If he will attend to it; make the publishers get it out; advertise it with a little persistency especially in the Inter-Queen there is a good bit of money in it.

Outside of that, it needs very little specific advertising. Two or three hundred editorial copies, rightly placed, with the right kind of a notice will give it a boom that will make things alright.

The best way would be to take it out of Belford's hands entirely. Pay him $50 for the old plates. It will cost but little to correct them — though I would make it cost something if they held them — have an edition published and sell them through the Inter-Ocean. Instead of receiving 10 per cent the profit on such a matter would be 25 per cent at least. There is no reason why we should not make a pretty little thing this year and next out of the matter if he will do something.
