

Revised Code Cost

|      |       |                       |          |
|------|-------|-----------------------|----------|
| 1833 | p 130 | Comptroller Statement |          |
|      |       | Moore & Rodman        | $5,000  |
| "    | " 162 | Little & Brown        | 4,000    |
| "    | " 104 | " "                   | 727      |
| 1856 | }     | Smith                 | 75       |
|      |       | Fowle "               | 150      |
|      |       | Binding New Code      | 56       |
| .    |       |                       |          |
| 1857 | i 14  | Moore & Rodman        | 2,900    |
|      | 137   | Printing New Code     | 100      |
|      |       |                       | $13,008 |

Battle Revisal -

|                            |          |
|----------------------------|----------|
| Printing & Bindg           | $10,000 |
| Judge Battle for Collating | 1,500    |
|                            | 11,500   |

9,933.
8,500

793
-
1143

44
56
56
45
17

---

216-6
230

---

346-

25

---

115
130

---

2
260

Sold 216 @ $6
" 130 @ $2

1296

---

260

---

1,556.

The Comptroller's Statement for 1855 shows that there was paid for the Revised Code ~~14,000~~
 To Messrs Moore & Rodman (Page 130) $5,000

Statement for 1856
 Little Brown & Co (Page 162) $4,000
 H. J. Smith (Page 164) 75
 D. J. Fowler " 150
 Little, Brown & Co " 727
 Binding Rev. Code 36

Statement for 1857
 Messrs Moore & Rodman (141) 2,900
 printing & Rev. Code (179) 100
 Total cost of publishing R. Code 12,998
 13,008

There was paid to the compositors for setting the laws (Rev. Code)

To N. M. Saunders $500
 Ira Pigg 2,000
 W. F. Moore 2,000
 H. J. Smith black 600
 $5,100

There was paid to W. H. Waller to revise the laws (Waller's Revision) $1,500