

64
A Hummock -

A knob of giant oaks which ^{group} ~~lean~~ their heads against the ^{with} ~~other~~

Their dark green branches barely meeting like patriarchs in solemn greeting.

While fendered mosses cower below like ghostly gray beards still & slow

Two a ^{mighty} ~~great~~ creeper ~~climber~~ just over the ground the great loop ~~is~~

Seamy trembling ^{neath the giant oak} ~~to the forest~~

With capture of two inlashed forms

Two forms which ^{eat} ~~clasp~~ and ~~circle~~ and clasp and ^{wrap} ~~and~~ and ~~circle~~ and ~~clasp~~

Soft bosom against rugged breast
In heavy capture closely prest

Whispering lips, sigh answering Eye flashing love to loveliest eyes

The orange trees
An orange ^{tree} shut in the scene
With mystic folds of gold and green

The placid river slumbering might In silver pictures ^{told} the sky

How beneath the ~~shade~~ ^{green} the line oaks ^{hardly} Were ~~of~~ the

Two hearts a second hidden maid

The heavens beamed down a softer day
The breeze filled out a sweeter lay
For Liza's eternal Passion - play

Write to Miss Ethelred Life - in regard to connecting with Arch with it as Genl Sgt. Gen
W.C.

Dennie Griffin
Essexboro
William & Griffin
of Co. C "2" East Tenn Gen. died at Gains
ville Ky. Oct. 1868 Applied for and recd bonus - proof of death to file with that claim

W.C. Griffin