Our Guest.

Response.....HON. A. W. TOURGEE, Upsilon, '62

"His heart had throbb'd in harmony with the great world-pulse in every one of the grand purposes with which it had swelled during these years."—A Fool's Errand

Psi Upsilon.

Response.....A. P. JACOBS, Phi, '73

"Psi Upsilon! Psi Upsilon!
No nobler name than thine,
None dearer to each faithful son
Who worships at thy shrine."

—The Deathless Name.

Psi Upsilon as an Educator.

Response.....PROF. GEO. S. MORRIS, Zeta, '61

"Education is a life work, and not a matter to be crowded into a few early years."—A Fool's Errand.

The Good Old Days.

Response.....HON. C. M. DAVISON, Theta, '38

"When on each head, at length, is laid
The coronal of age,
Youth's memories warm our hearts shall charm,
And every care assuage."—The Deathless Name.

The Detroit Alumni.

Response.....WILLIAM AIKMAN, Jr., Delta, '72

"The World's rough paths are cheery,
And life has joyous grown,
Since round our spirits weary
Psi U's sweet bounts were thrown."

—Bonds of Psi Upsilon.

Our Future Great Men.

Response.....H. E. BOYNTON, Phi, '86

"The day-star bright shall know no night,
But upward e'er shall guide
The youthful train who seek a fame
Where friendship doth preside."

—The Deathless Name.
