Raleigh, May 29th 1870.

Dear Judge.

I recd. your note yesterday and obtained the warrant, but could not get it checked until today, and have sent you by Express Two hundred ($200.00) dollars. I watched the Hotel very closely, in hopes that you would stop, or rather, pass thru. here on your way up, but was unable to learn that you did. Are you ever coming to D. again? All are well here, and dull as usual. Remember me to all.

Yours
