

Roberts N. Co.,
June 11th 1870.

Hon. A. W. Torrey,

Judge.

Col. J. B. Venable, informs me that you have all of the papers in the case of Wm. B. Oakley & wife, against C. S. Winstead, Jr.

Please let me know, whether you have them or not. I have ^{not} been able to find them, since Court would have written sooner but knowing if you had them that you would send them to me in due time.

I have no news of importance to communicate our people are quiet, I am getting on with the duties of my office, very well, at present.

I am, with great respect, yours

A. N. Tuck,

clerk.
