A. W. TOURGEE,

JUDGE

Office of the Judge of the Superior Court, SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, N. C.

Greensboro,

Oct. 5th, 1870

My Dear Wife - I meant to have written to you last night but I was over to Mrs. Stephens until about 9 K and after I came back Geo. Thompson was in my room for a long time, so I did not "get" to do it. I got away five by yesterday and think today and tomorrow the work will end the term. I am putting things through with a rush - not giving any one any favors. I shall try and get away so as to take the freight train tomorrow but may not succeed - Letitia Stephens is to be married on Thursday evening to the son of Mr. Grant who was there when we were here. Mrs. S. has been lame and is so now from a sore foot. I am well and for here at Mitchell's and am camped in the parlor. Yesterday at noon I had to give up my room for a couple to be married in - They went away happy. I think upon reflection I will not have William come down just yet.

We will perhaps go to Redsville and go out and look up some land hereafter

Yours as ever

G. L. Brown
