

A. W. TOWNSEND,
JUDGE

Office of the Judge of the Superior Court

Greensboro, N.C., Nov. 12, 1891

My dear wife,

Your letter of yesterday was received this a.m. I am sorry that you will be disappointed in not getting a letter today. I have been very busy ever since my arrival trying to get through with the business so as to get off Saturday night - We are having a great time - Joe Turner is after me again for a lawsuit - and has all Raleigh and not a few from the outer world - here as witnesses. There is a pretty good flow as to what will and what will not be done - One would think that all roads centered at this point and that the entire safety of the nation, if not the security of the orbis terrarum the whole cycle of our dependence on the will of this dwelling planet of deities - Well, well, we shall see.

I can assure you are feeling as unaccountably as most earnestly hope in many weeks but long that a glad relief may soon come.

I don't know but it is just as well that I should not be any longer the cause of it.

Have the job in the end - I'll be glad to run through and the things - and you think and work enough for a long time - then look at the drums and have them to - long of them - many and the

If you are any worse and for an and - I would be glad to stop if I only had a good excuse -

God help and comfort you during -
