

State of North Carolina }
Alamance County }

Polly Gappins being duly sworn says that in the month of January 1870 in the night-time a band of disguised persons visited her house in Alamance County and unlawfully destroyed and pulled down the dwelling house of her the said Polly Gappins and injured other personal property belonging to her. The said Polly Gappins that from her knowledge of the persons at the time and more especially by reason of late developments the said Polly Gappins is satisfied that the persons who destroyed her house were the same persons who destroyed the house of the late John Gappins, and that the same persons who destroyed the house of the late John Gappins are the same persons who destroyed the house of the late John Gappins.

Witness my hand and seal this 1st day of March 1870
