

The State

vs

Geo. Nevels -
Adl. McPherson
and others

Affidavit of Henry Holt Const.

Henry Holt - being first duly sworn deposes and says:

That he is a constable of Gum Groe township Alameda County. That on the 18th day of December 1891 - he received certain warrants issued by Hon. A. W. Forger Judge Sup Court 9th Dist. directing him to arrest and bring before said Judge certain parties named in said warrants, in the County of Orange. That in pursuance of said mandate he arrested and had in custody one David Nevels. And that while he was taking ^{the said Nevels} him to the town of Graham as directed in said warrants, he was stopped upon the public highway by George Nevels, Dr Ad. McPherson and four others of affiant unknown. These men threatened his life, impeded his progress and for a considerable time impeded and hindered the execution of the said lawful process in his hands - and further affiant saith not.

Henry Holt

The State
accounts
George Nevola
& others

Affidavit of Henry Heath
Constable

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013