Judge Touge

dear Sir

You have seen what the Supreme Court did with Bryan & Hook.

Are they coming; then defendent rules, upon a writ of habeas corpus, & by the court, they are free in Bond it shall be, unless the case is being way not ground. Public policy; but a question of to be resolved by the Court.

Have you considered the question since?
I know from several on your own memory and I had to have been to mention the name of the case to you.

I trust under you & Miss Touge & Miss Touge, (What is an unnecessary case such as prevail, at your house, I take it) are in good health.

What are your divinations, electionwise for November?

Yours Truly,
E. F. Philbrick
