

Salisbury Oct 21st 72
Dear Mr. Foye.

Dear sir

I read with pleasure the remarks of Major Corwin at your celebration at Guilford, in reply to the Klunkers who disturbed him and the other speakers. The conduct of these people shows to my mind how anxious they are to "shake hands" over the "bloody cause". I have Corwin's remarks will be published in the "New York Herald Times" and I suppose them in other northern papers. Major Corwin tells me, he thinks what you said should also be published.
I hope you will write out your speech and see that it is published, let these hypocrites who talk about "shaking hands" have their deserts - Very respectfully, Geo. M. Clark
