JAMES E. BOYD,

GRAHAM, N. C. May 15th 1873

Dear Judge

I dislike to trouble you but necessity rather compels me I am hard up for some money just now and if you were convenient you would confer a favor on me by committing the one hundred dollars ~~to me~~. I hope that you will not be offended or consider that I am at all uneasy about the matter.

I call upon you now more for a favor than otherwise because I am in great need. I hope that ere this your health is improved and that you will soon be in fully recovered

Yours Truly

James E. Boyd
