

To Ashboro

Hillsboro N.C.

May 23rd 1873

Hon. A.W. George

Dear Sir

I have received notice from New York counsel for the plaintiffs in the matter of "G.I. & Ice Cream vs. W. Castlebury" that on Thursday May 23rd 1873 at Greensboro he will move your Honor to "appoint a receiver and also for an order to sell the inventory of the firm". As your Honor will hold court in Randolph this week, I suppose it will not be convenient for you to be in Greensboro at that time.
Will you be kind enough to inform me through
S. W. Graham at what time you can see the case.

With much respect
I am dear sir
S. W. Graham.
