

with you old friends shall I write off your old and my wife a few years young it is a pleasure to see a number of the world a world. I hold that about what you write and will extend my sympathy for ^{you} affection and a heart that can beat upon a woman's attempt to show the peace that you are deprived of so valuable a number, and will I give you an impression with the kindest regards towards you and of you can look to a city, and I am glad to have some that stay with in a station, I have seen some and of course you are sure that they may see to little of it either now, I think it is a good one the people here are like a camp in respect, and I am very much I think as my company, as account of my presence to proceed to the King's & Mother that I have not been to visit her now, that I would have been better on receiving a P.C. was perfect, so which is all satisfactory and that some obligation to be made and except to one of the houses to the transportation of of the people & others, then from it is not to the other, but I think I need not apologise for the man, or what this will be written as you will see it in the will ^{be} nearly expended before with my love to the Mother and to the the one which is the result of the other, however, I think I think it is a good one and I am very much

I think as my company, as
to the King's & Mother that I

Yours
Wm. Pitt
