

[Faded handwritten text]

[Faded handwritten text]

[Extremely faded handwritten text, likely a letter or business document]

Sept 24th 1862

[Faded handwritten text]

Apuk S.P. No. 11111 Sh Boston
Dfr

The interruptions of our business have been such for some time past that we are unable to fill orders as promptly as we could wish - we hope to be able to forward a large invoice as soon as we shall receive statement of returns from you - Please deposit in bank at once all funds in your hands resulting from sales of our stock subject to the order of Wilson & Fisher Bankers of this city & inform us by telegraph of the amount and us at once full statement of business since June return - We cannot consent to your purchase from other parties & shall pay no difference in price Indeed you have always assured us your paper more than all other matters - If you should be in the relation