Dear Sir

My attention has been called to your letter of the second of Dec. was not made in reference to Old Account transactions. We had no intention thereby of admitting your claim to anything not specifically embraced in the terms of compromise in Shaw v. Shaw Deming & Co.

For we that perfectly understood viz—

"Five hundred dollars with of January Inst. Note for Two hundred dollars with of *3. 36" Six months Note of " " One hundred dollars with of *3. 36" Eight months Note of " "

"They have ever ready for delivery to you & every moment they have been for months — You can have them whenever you furnish us proper evidence of having complied with your part of said compromise
