High Court etc,
Sir,

Yours of the 10th inst. recd.
Now say you dismissed the suit on the day of trial. That statement is utterly false as you are well aware, no longer ago than the 6th of this month your attorney served on us a motion assigned to avoid dismissing the action at all. He stated that he did so by your direction. We have the proof of this in our hands. You had better make such statement about something, or are not posted on,

Yours Really
