January 3

A. Hamilton & Co
Guelph

We have been looking for several days for your January statement of sales and sales. Please make it up and forward as soon as convenient. An arrangement with you over that you were to furnish no statement of sales and much for same the first of each month - We have not received a single statement - You also stated in several letters that all the bundles we had shipped were sold & urged us to send more &c. so of course you must have some sales to report - Please give this some attention
