

Dear Sir,
 I have been very much interested in your account of the late war, and particularly in the part which you have written concerning the conduct of the British army. I am glad to see that you have given a very full and accurate account of the various operations, and that you have not forgotten to mention the brave conduct of the British soldiers. I am sure that your account will be very interesting to all who are interested in the history of the late war.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
 J. M. Allen Esq.

Exciting day, or P.S. I noticed what you said in a late letter about my leading a wretched life & having a clear conscience. It's pretty damned hard work to run a humane factory & have a clear conscience, your advice was cheap and I shall think of it, my regards to Paquin Mrs. Matyve & wife
