Gentlemen,

We enclose you invoice of 1st of handles shipped you today - also copy of a letter to Greenboro Handle Works. You will see we have ordered them to turn over to you all of our goods that they have not sold and to make payment to you of the amt. due us for sales. Please report to us at once on receipt of the goods for them the exact amount of such kind of handles and also report what money they pay you so that we can draw on you for it. Please notice that every case they turn over to you is marked with our stencil on the end, and try if possible and not let them shoo off any of their handles of their manufacture on you - for ease we will send you tomorrow a full list of handles sent them and you can then tell whether the handles they transfer to you are correct. - Gentlemen we have a proposition to make
