[redacted]

We have allayed replying to your late letter until the arrival of Mr Jones to whom you gave the draft upon which arrangements should be made for the settlement of the undersigned to ady other forbing house in New York City. This arrangement while it continues in force obliges us to have an office & clerk in attendance upon the arrival & departure of the mail steamers from your port, & therefore felt your letter should be followed by the following terms:— Should you open an account for 6 months from date of purchase we will allow you 5 per cent per annum off our bill bought. Should you open an account for your bank — If you is satisfactory to you Kindly advise us at once that we may draw on you for the amount of the bill at 12 — per D/ Yours Respy [illegible]