Since Mr. Curran's return from N.Y. he informed us that he had a conversation with you in regard to our joining you in a warehouse in N.Y. - We have considered the matter and think favorably of it providing a proper arrangement can be made, We would much to make it our head quarters - No doubt not that our sales in N.Y. could thereby be increased more than 100 per cent with a good stock of bundles there - We know that we could sell more - We have over 600 worth of bundles good such tea that could be shipped any day - Our packing room is nearly full - Should such an arrangement be made - the house could take orders such as you now have and that together with the bundles would make a very pretty business. We would be pleased to hear your views of the matter at once should
