

Dear Sir
 I have been thinking of you and your business very much and I am glad to hear that you are all well and that your business is going on as usual I have not much news to write at present but I will write again when I have more news to tell you
 I am, Sir, your obedient servant

edge work which have changed their designs and we presumed they would not be an exception.
 We could not tell W. H. Co's little order in a few days but must to know what they would think.
 How then send me a new lot of designs if they have made any change lately - or if the ones we now have are correct let me know and we will proceed to buy. -

Your orders of Hammer orders will be filled in a day or two - and your small orders shall have preference of all others as soon as we get our small machinery going again.

Yours truly
