

the big end of the horn well see what is the best time he will make & get his proposition one would not mind giving the house a good percentage say as high as 15% and as we would get the half of it let us know at once what time he offers & if he is too extravagant look around & see what the prospect might be under a contingency. We are not coming to day as we blow off the boiler last night & it seems that out - Now let me see depending a great deal on your frankness might almost say that our fate is with you & we are satisfied that you appreciate it & will do your best but your plan has not been quite so well than we but is better again the rest of the premises all well let us hear from you every day and you know we are on the anxious seat

Yours Truly
 M. C. Handley Co.
 R. Kelly

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]