

J. W. Brown

I have just received your letter of the 11th and am glad to hear that you are well.
 I am well at present
 and hope these few lines will find you
 the same. I have not much news to write
 at present. I am
 ever your friend

Mr. W. Brown
 Dear Sir

Received your telegram this morning & I was a great deal surprised by your letter as you meant intended us to do at any rate we could do no better & had to do in haste not time to write any more can't you make that clear Allen take care of that note in some way like if you can't do any thing else will write you to morrow & answer you time next.

Yours truly
 Wm. H. C. Handcock
