Dear Sir

Dear Sir

Yours of June 18th to hand & in reply to say that we are putting our pick & will soon be able to send you a lot of pick as you probably understand at the same time we will fill your order on pick. Can you try & see more orders good & not so many? I am sure we can do it & it seems almost impossible for us to get them in the quantities ordered in proportion to the other grades. We will send you tomorrow a lot of goods in your order as well as I.C.C. & Special. We draw on you to day for the amount of 1642.25 (as usual) 545.49 in draft for the balance to be made return to you for that amount. I.C.C. order would like you to send us statement of account soon.

Yours Respectfully
 W. C. Howland
