

John Jay

To the Honble the President of the United States

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst. in relation to the proposed Convention of the States of the United States to be held at Philadelphia on the 1st of September next. I am glad to hear that you are desirous of attending it, and I am confident that your presence will be of great service to the cause of the Union. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant.

June 26th 1787

Ed W. Mifflin

Dear Sir

Yours of June 20th to hand & contents which we were considerably surprised to hear that Green had taken the question that he has not had supposed that the matter was arranged & was making our calculations accordingly but such is life & we have to take things as they come. The Honorable proposes but I understand that French and you understand how Mr Judge is going to start next night he will be in Philadelphia at the Continental Hotel until Saturday in the morning or Saturday next and will be in New York a Saturday night or Monday next. We think you had better not make any definite arrangement until he get there but in the mean time get a definite proposition from him what he will do & when in the time he will go into an arrangement at Lancaster the City is well as you can & get posted just as thoroughly as it is possible for you to do could be anxious. The matter is just in that shape that we will want to be as thoroughly posted as possible & left before we have a delay of a couple weeks may run up something that will