

The foregoing petition having been presented to me with the request that I should "do ~~nothing~~" for the defendant petitioner I cheerfully certify from my recollection of the trial that he did commit the assault set out in the indictment and for which he was convicted; that he was sentenced as set forth, that he is now in jail where he deserves to be, and I verily believe, is anxious to get out. —

Jan. 15th 1874 —

Century Judge 7th Dist.