

of the country is hardly equal to the style and <sup>the</sup> dramatic power of displayed in the copy before me. This will in probable inclusion will come in and thus will be natural by the way and path of your style does it not certainly let me say that your many and judicial experience are all to be recorded as well the way and extent of the services we wish you to mind. Personal experience from the time you entered the army till your leaving the bar if written in your proper style would be a great it may not be the time now to publish but at the time to write. In the mean time much of the matter (might be brought out into a single volume or more

When you are sixty there prob. not necessary to me be of the great value — probably less than I should receive the amount of the book when read — then however not perhaps one to be read not a partic-cipant in the services cribed desires to know Personal sketches of great value to you that would name the degree interest in the history of the nation. You will wonder to what you will The man's great success and the time to be into the time of the book. You more than the rest.

discretion. We can just write you but in case if we are so then helpful at to send what I am occupied place of time, and a letter I understand a receipt

I have enjoyed your best eye for having in reflected I am sure a little better. The I am also for some time remember me to your wife In this letter I just would also in the equally receipt with a new letter

Yours truly
H. H. Jackson

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1. 1.