Dear Sir,

I bought "Tomato" and read it with much pleasure.

What in thunder did you want to put out that man's eyes twice for?

After such hard searching to find them the first time, he ought to have been permitted to keep them. The work is going the rounds of the board and all seem slighted therewith.

Best believe is a trick that's certain.

Have you any thing else under way - let me know. kin friskfully ever.

Yours all
