My dear Sir

Here is a letter for you etc. I forward whole city a line. I have been waiting for your copyright etc. but all the etc. have been delayed this month. Most houses think themselves lucky to get them out (publicly known) by March 1.
It will be ready now in a few days. I fear there will not be much copy from Smith, as we have advertised it so much, hoping to drive it to a large sale, that its profits have been eaten into. However, it will probably sell along for some time yet.
I will send you the money for "John Jay" with you etc.
In haste, truly yours, J. B. Ford

Howard
