Thos A W Torgler.

My dear Sir.

I was pleased at hearing that upon the application of numerous friends you had determined to enter the "lecture field" next winter.

I think that you are admirably qualified for such a field of intellectual labor. - Your originality of thought, rich literary attainments, forcible delivery, and brilliant style of composition will make your lectures entertaining and instructive.

I feel confident of your eminent success as I am well satisfied that you will in every respect deserve it.

With kind regards, - Yours to

Robt Dick
