

Constitutional Convention,

Raleigh. Sept 22nd, 1875.

My dear wife:

I am very well now but very much inclined to be lazy. I was up all last night writing a report for our minority of the committee on the Robeson County matter.
I shall be in the Constitution tomorrow or the day after. You must not be too hard on me if I do not write you as regularly as you could wish.
Remember mine infirmity - we read up the Holden disability matter today and it is said that I made a good speech. You will probably see some reports of it.
I met Mrs. Beaton today. She is a fine woman. She is very kind.

woman - I am complimented on highly on my speech which she revels -

Young has been to Wash & ington on the collector biz - which I told you of - I don't expect now Drupper will get it - but Young will have trouble and I think lose his place -

I shall try and think if there cannot be something got out of the farm

Yours truly
A. D. Orange
