at my house

Greenboro N. C. Sept 20th 1855

Wed. 11 A. M.

Dear Husband,

I was very glad to get your letter this morning as it seemed a long time since I had had one. As often happens you were wrong in dates, as tomorrow instead of today is my birth day. I would like very much to go down to see you but I doubt think I had better spend the week. If you come home Sat. I think we can wait till then to see each other. You know Mrs Kings birthday is the same as mine and she has invited me to spend the day with her which I intend to do and please no doubt have a pleasant time but I shall miss you.

It is too bad that the Republicans cannot remain friends with us. I am sure that the present indications do not offer many "grounds of comfort" to the adherents of that party that they have cause of jealousy. You ...? believe if you will and hear the discussion. Use the nation full of the suspect buyers or of some other. I see your thoughts will be the matter and work in for golden after all as I thought you would. The Gold words I heard seemed to think you did him more harm than good. I saw nothing in the news you sent up. I did not get the translation this morning & so it failed with other Republican newspapers.

The Dr. left last night and I have no idea any of us will ever see him alive again. The hospital to which he is to be attached is on Ward's Island and I should think no worse place could be found for a consumptive to spend his winter.

You are getting more and more disgusted with Convention are you not? I think "Leaving me back was la shandille." I don't see how you can leave now with credit until the thing is over. Though I can make up my mind had had nothing to do with it from the beginning - but it may turn out for the best after all. Only do right. Darling as God shows you the way and all will yet be well with us.

Give me some sooner thoughts whenever I get them in your account be with me - Andie could do a thing - ever

Priscilla
