Office BOARD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
OF GRANVILLE COUNTY.

Oxford, N. C., May 31st 1876

Hon. A. W. Fougess.

Dear Sir:

You will please inform me whether or not that Sheriff Moore, or otherwise late Sheriff, who was a defaulter in several thousand dollars, and could not settle, and the County Commissioners had to declare the office vacant, and elect another in his place last September, can hold office or not, if elected at the next election, or can he come forward and qualify as such, and he having failed at the time, to have settled his indebtedness to the County, and is still a defaulter.

I do this at the suggestion of several of the friends of the Old Sheriff, and also myself who is a friend of his. Please inform me as soon as received, and by ~~so~~ doing you will very much oblige your friends. He is a defaulter at present of several thousands.

Yours truly
R. D. Jones
