

3013

ALL LETTERS RELATING TO EDITORIAL BUSINESS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED "EDITOR NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, NEW YORK CITY."

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

Telephone Call, "729-21st."

No. 8 EAST FOURTEENTH STREET.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

[DICTATED.]

NEW YORK CITY, 10/17 1887.

My dear Judge
 I am able in the N. A. Review to do better. I can make no arrangement without the full knowledge of the I submitted your letter to him with my much cordial after reading your conditions but them; the conditions make it impossible to with out being himself a success, I know;
 altho' he did not specify that as his objection
 So I do so no more Your article is admirably written, but you want get the credit you deserve by them accordingly. I had some to mention that conditions of were very far from
 I am sorry!
 Yours very truly
 Jas Redpath

Judge. Tougee!