Dear Mrs. Durgan,

Yours of 19th to hand. Don't let my ignorance of the Lincoln issue worry you. I may be better posted than you think. My purpose, to get a letter from the Judge, is accomplished, though it contained no great variety of matter, nor found my compliments.

I don't know whether Mayville or Chicago is the center from which the Lincoln Arrow radiates, but is amusing to see the Chicago Railway projectors here, who don't build railroads, the lumber speculators who buy no lumber, and the real estate projectors who purchase no land, but quietly sift the people on the Lincoln question. It is the stillest still-hunt, and the "innocentest" pro-conviction canvass the world ever saw, not to make proselytes, but to sound the masses, for they don't talk; they stanch the water clapper running, and then turn aside their ears and mouths and — listen.

I much however confess to the "dry quins" when I read the dash of our friend Nichols into the unknown Sea (C) of Simpatism. For I know he never even dreamed of it before, which accounts for the fact that he never invited my attention to it. He isn't half as bad as I pictured him, but he won't do for Tier. The old hack Settle would be something better.

Tell the Judge he is right on Canada & Loge, but only half so on Krogh & Boyer. If he will go back to one of the old C letters, he will find the counterpart of Fowl & Badger and the ducks pond in Krogh & Nichols. One shut his eyes & search in all over, in one fell swoop - and the other stands watching the bubbles from the bank. If the fish live, the second will be at his heels, ab-initio.

Very truly yours,
A. W. Shaffer
