Mrs Emma K. Lougee,

Dear Madam: Your favor of the 24th duly received. I return the testimonial as you request and am only surprised you have not yet heard from Texas where we have two papers. I fully appreciated, & may state here, the excellence of your husband's article when I received it and I will be happy to give him a date on our next programme if he cares to write me another article on some popular subject at the same rate as the last, $50.
If he can find time to do this kindly ask him not to exceed 1300 words.

In regard to the Christmas story I can assure you I did not pass upon the matter lightly. If it were possible I would make room for it but I cannot do it without being forced to leave out matter already contracted for.
As this class of literature cannot be used at any other season you will readily see my position.

If your husband decides to favor me with the second article he can send it in at any time and check will be immediately forwarded but as you will see by the enclosed programme it will have to remain "on hand" some time.

Yours most truly
Chas Brown
