Dear Mrs. Tourgee

It is no surprise that you find it inconvenient to take up the work suggested. But I mean sometime to try the Judge's books on that plan.

If "Button's Inn" should have a run we might follow in its wake. Should it develop popularity in some particular locality I would be glad to know of it.

With kind regards to the Judge I remain, as ever

Yours very truly

Geo. S. Hulbert

On the 5th inst I went to Oberlin to attend the <sup>26</sup> Re-union of the "Peru Reading Circle", being its 26th anniversary - Had a good time.
