~~Gentlemen:~~ When your letter reached me Billy was very ill, and my time was so occupied that I could not reply at once, as I wished. Please send by mail three (3) copies of Button's Ann, hope that after advertising it - in the Daily Workman

We can give you a larger order, than send several complimentary notices of it - in the Publishers Weekly, and Northern papers, & am anxious to read it - had intended buying some copies when I was in North for good.
Do you sell the Fort's Manual also? I wish to get - two or three copies of that - Are you ever coming to Geneva bro' again? you will find that it has improved greatly - We will be glad to see you at any time that you may come - Don't wish to write - more now. Remember me to Judge Tongue and Indi.

Yours Sincerely Mary C. Ball.
