My darling:

Reached here at 11 oc. and am comfortably installed in the parlor and parlor bedroom. It is a genuine Southern town where the business men play marbles in the dull season and quirts in the busy spells. And I am to lecture here on "Give us a Rest."

Frank is back in St. Joseph. Leave for Kansas City tomorrow morning at 5:40. Pleasant prospect, isn't it.

Am afraid you will not get this until I have gotten eastward. Hard trip from Newmy here. Newmy delightful.

Write Crumston that would let him have us so far as printed by Nov. 10. Am afraid the dates you have given will keep me busily pressed. I don't think it best to get the book out before Feb. but how in Heaven's name can I do Hoppinott's story and be back here in the west ~~time~~? Eh Sweetheart? Never mind. I'll do it some how; but you must remember I am human. I can't ride all day and lecture every night and do such work besides. You have the making of my duties and you must look out for such snafus as that. Don't break me down again, please. I doubt if I can get to Chicago in time to go East Sunday night, but will try. Will telegraph tomorrow.

Love to all. God bless you.
Albin.

I send draft for $90.- Could not quite squeeze out the hundred this time as expenses having been rather heavy. Hope you will get it Saturday but fear you will not
