Farmington, N.Y., Oct. 29/87.

Dear Madam:

Your note of Oct. 26, with newspaper clipping enclosed, is acknowledged with thanks.

I am surprised to learn that you have had no Journals containing the "Buttons Inn" review and the "Frost" article. I sent copies of each number, and also wrote Judge Jourgen a letter of thanks for his gift of the book which I prize highly. I cannot find one of the papers that Contained the ^{the} Frost article, but send you one of the others of which you made mention. My father was much interested in the letter to the Ohio vets.

With cordial good wishes for yourself and Judge George,

I am your obedient servant,

Fred. W. Hyde
