

NEW YORK, Nov 2 1887

Dear Mr. Torrey

I have read you the page Galleys 89-113. I had sent to <sup>Baldwin, Free</sup> ~~the~~ Oct 19; also the title added. Sent to Gallatin, etc.
As the list you give me reads in Penn. Nov 3 I take it he will be soon at home soon, & send you today Galley 114-121. Please have the Chapter titles put in Galley: it saves time & bother.
The ice stay is fine; I have indicated a kind of "causation"
at the end as to why I have.
It may be my faultful use of Latin parts, so much she can't in between.

Respectfully
Yours
R. H. S.
